

EVELYN GREENBERG is one of Ottawa's foremost vocal accompanists and ensemble players. For many years she was a member of the faculty of the Department of Music at the University of Ottawa where she initiated and taught the accompaniment courses and coordinated the ensemble programs. She has performed as pianist and harpsichordist with the National Arts Centre Orchestra, the CBC Studio Ensemble, the Nepean and Ottawa Symphony Orchestras, the Ottawa International Chamber Festival, as well as in recital with the CBC and at the Canadian embassies in Tokyo and Washington, DC.

She was the Founding Chair of the National Arts Centre Orchestra Association.

She has a Bachelor of Commerce from Carleton University.

In 2005 Evelyn received an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Ottawa in recognition of her commitment to furthering music education and for her volunteer work in the community.

And very recently she was acknowledged as one of the "Extraordinary Women" by the University of Ottawa.
