

Nesrin Yarangumelioglu

Experienced French Language Teacher | Former Senior Sales and Business Development Manager | Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

With over two decades in language education and testing, Nesrin excels in Instructional Design, E-Learning, and Learning Management. Currently, she is an Online Learning Solution Advisor at Global Affairs Canada, where she has championed project management and content creation for four years.

Previously, Nesrin conducted language proficiency assessments and managed projects as a Language Testing Advisor. She also brings over seven years of experience in sales and business development, having been Turkey Representative and Sales Manager at PCC ASIA LLC.

Nesrin's academic background includes a Postgraduate diploma in Teaching French as a Second or Foreign Language from Bahcesehir University, and a Bachelor of Arts in French Language and Literature from Istanbul University.

In addition to her professional roles, Nesrin has proudly served as a Member at Large and Communications Manager for the CANADIAN AND TURKISH WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF OTTAWA for over three years.

Committed to lifelong learning and knowledge-sharing, Nesrin approaches education and sales not just as careers, but as passions that drive her pursuit of excellence.